ABOUT US

We're Jen and Sean. During our 20+ years together, we successfully built our careers, started our own businesses and now travel the world together full-time. We are foodies and entrepreneurs, searching for experiences, stories, and opportunities on and off the beaten path. As "slow travelers" we typically spend about a month in each new location in order to get an in-depth view of the places we visit. This allows us time to explore and eat our way through each new destination. And yes, it is as good as it sounds!

OUR BLOG

We blog about travel, food, cooking, culture, and how to sustain a location independent lifestyle. We like to highlight areas outside the typical "tourist route" and offer new insights into familiar places. We strive to inspire others to venture beyond their currently perceived limitations, and to have experiences that they'd never before imagined.

We like to highlight cultural/culinary travel by writing about food experiences, including restaurants, cooking classes, food tours and recipes from the places that we visit. There seems to be a growing number of people who say that they would pick a destination just for the food. We put ourselves clearly in that camp.

WHY WORK WITH US?

- We're two professionals with a proven track record of success in business, marketing, and management
- As food and travel bloggers, we have some followers that are interested in learning about new places and others that are food and cooking enthusiasts. We therefore have the opportunity to introduce products from various destination through their regional cuisine and recipes.
- We have had a number of successful collaborations with tourism boards, restaurants, and tour providers. A complete list of previous partnerships is available on request.
- We have the flexibility that a location independent lifestyle offers - where do you want us?
- Professionalism is very important to us. We will arrive promptly and will be prepared. And we will deliver exactly what we promise - on time, every time.

HOW CAN WE WORK TOGETHER?
